HORSE RACE NO LOTTERY. INGRAHAM'S DICTUM IN THE MOR-RIS PARK CASES.

The Justice Also Says It Is Not Illegal for a Man to Make a Bet with an Acquaint-ance and Record It if No Money Passes. Argument on the writs of habeas corpus obtained by counsel for Samuel R. Lawrence President of the Westchester Racing Association, and Joseph Sturg's, a bookmaker's clerk, was held before Justice Ingraham in the Cham-hers of Oyer and Terminer yesterday. President Lawrence, who was arrested last pronth. was charged with contriving a lottery, pool selling, and maintaining a nuisance at Morris Park. Sturgis is accused of bookmaking in violation of the law. Justice Ingraham's decision in the matter will settle the question as to the constinationality of the Percy-Gray Racing law.

Assistant District Attorney Lindsay appeared for the people, while Former District Attorney Nicoll represented Sturgls, and Joseph S. Aper. bach, Elihu Root, and John M. Bowers appeared for Mr. Lawrence. Peter De Lacy's legal representative was also present. Mr. Auerbach began the argument by reciting the history of the Percy-Gray law and the causes which led up to its passage by the Legislature. He declared that the law was framed for the avowed purpose of protecting the legitimate patrons of horse racing. Mr. Auerbach said the case against Mr. Lawrence was instigated, not by representative citizens, but by a crowd of disappointed gamblers. The Percy-Gray law pro-hibited these gamblers from pursuing their illegitimate calling.

Mr. Lindsay said that Mr. Auerbach deviated from the main contention of the people, and had ignored the charge of "contriving a lottery." Justice Ingraham interrupted at this point and lottery. A lottery, as every one knows, is where everything depends upon chance. A horse race depends upon speed, strength, orendurance, and there cannot be two things further apart than a horse race and a lottery."

I have decisions here to show, your Honor, that a horse race is a game of chance," said Mr.

"I have decisions here to show, your Honor, that a horse race is a game of chauce," said Mr. Lindsay.
"Oh!" said the Justice, "you, may show decisions to prove anything, but to say that a horse race is a lottery is an absurd misuse of the English language."
The case of President Lawrence rested while DeLancey Nicoli argued in behalf of Sturgis, the bookmaker's clerk. Mr. Nicoli said the law could not be construed in Sturgis's case in any manner that would make him a bookmaker. Justice Ingraham agreed with Mr.Nicoli, apparently, for he declared that the recording of one or half a dozen bets on a race did not make a man a bookmaker, and even if it should be shown that he was a bookmaker, and that his acts were unconstitutional, there was no statute on the books for punishment for the offence. He said the Legislature had failed to provide any punishment for bookmakers under the law. Mr. Root, arguing for Mr. Lawrence, said the Constitution was amended in reference to pool selling for the express purpose of doing away with taking the money from clerks and other working people, who could ill afford to lose money. Pool selling had become a lottery, and many people were led into the temptation of risking their money. In horse racing, however, there certainly was an element of chance, as there was chance in insurance, or any other legitimate business. The Westchester Racing Association was not run to make money. Certain fees were charged for necessary exponses, but the object was to promote the breeding of good horses. There were no profits in the Morris Park race track. The association had nothing to do with pool selling in the sense that pool selling was a public nuisance.

Justice Ingraham said he did not think it was illegal for a person to make a bet with another person whom he knew, and record the same, providing no money was passed between them. He said he thought such a transaction was within the law. He took the briefs submitted by both sides and reserved decision.

WILL JOHN CAMPBELL GO? A Rumor that Col. Ruppert Will Have

At the end of the year there are likely to be meny changes in the big racing stables in the East. It is rumored that Col. Ruppert will have a new trainer and jockey. John Campbell, who prepared both Diablo and Castaway II. for the Brooklyn Handicaps, which both won in their respective years, intends, it is said, to leave the Ruppert stable. The Colonel will also have to Ruppert stable. The Colonel will also have to engage a first-class jockey, as Johnny Lamle is too sick to don the pigskin.

Among the men who are mentioned as being likely to fill the place of Campbell are J. V. Elliott, who trained for both of the Dwyers with success. He also handled Shelby Tuttle and other horses for C. Cornehleson. Matt Allen and W. Rollins are also spoken of. The latter was the trainer for the Oneck stable, of which the late Dr. Gideon L. Knapp was the chief owner.

which the late Dr. Gideon L. Knapp was the chief owner.

It it is a first that the Oneck string may be soon sold at auction. If this is true there will undoubtedly be a strong competition for the services of Sam Dozgett, who rode for the stable. It is also said in racing circles that Frank D. Beard, who is one of the principal owners of the Eric Stables, has his eye on Doggett for next season. Of the crack Eastern jockeys, August Belmont has the first claim for the services of Griffin. Col. W. P. Thompson has engaged young Clayton. Taral and Simms are not signed yet, but both are likely to secure first-class engagements.

McDuffe Knocke Out Ryan in the Ninth

A private glove contest, which was scheduled for ten rounds, was decided in the gymnasium of the Ridgewood A. C. on Tuesday evening. The principals were two well-known amateur fighters. champion of the Glendale A. C. The lads boxed for a gold watch and chain. McDuffle weighed 1194 pounds and Ryan 121 pounds.

Many wagers were made on the result, the betting being about even. McDuffle fought fast from the start, and had the better of the argument up to the end of the third round. Then Ryan, who had fought on the defensive, cut loose, rushed his opponent, and started the claret running from McDuffle's nose with a straight left-hander.

It was a tess-up after that for two rounds. Then McDuffle "came again," and scored a clean knockdown in the sixth round. Ryan was dazed after that, and McDuffle's supporters cheered him to the echo. Ryan continued to fall away, being very weak. McDuffle punched his man as he pleased in the eighth round, the Glendale lad being unable to defend himself. The left in the wind and the right in the face did the trick in the ninth round, McDuffle knocked Ryan down and out, and won the amateur feather-weight championship of Queens Forest and Stream, in speaking of the coming Dunraven investigation, says: "It is now understood that the inquiry will be private, not even members of the club being admitted. We are surprised that, in view of the importance of the matter abroad, the committee has decided to make the inquiry private. The interests of the defence, which presumably has nothing to conceal, demand the fullest publicity throughout the entire proceedings, and there should be nothing in the evidence which in the interest of either side must be suppressed or concealed from the public. The press at least should have full liberty to attend and report the proceedings. Without questioning the good faith and good judgment of the Cup Committee in falling to make public on the instant Lord Dunraven's first charges, it is evident that had this been done the matter could never have assumed its present serious phase."

While the members of the Racing Committee of the L. A. W. and the Cycle Board of Trade who held a conference on Tuesday evening in relation to the racing situation for next season refuse to divulge what decision was arrived at, a Sun reporter was told yesterday by a promi practically decided to suggest that professional be admitted to the league next year, and that three classes, A. While the racing situation is rather compilcated at present, it seems evident that the L. A. report that the manufacturers will not support racing teams next season is not believed. It is understood that if class B is retained, as seems likely, the manufacturers will still employ their racing men, but pay smaller salaries. The Pennsylvania division of the L. A. W. is said to favor the recelection of A. C. Willison to the Presidency.

G. C. Brown is mentioned as the successor to G. H. Orr as Chairman of the Racing Board of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association.

Charley Murphy has made a good record upon the track this year. He has gained the half a mile competition record of the world, tied for the mile, and also the mile exhibition record. It is said that Murphy has won prizes to the value of $4.000 this senson.

The mileago record of the members of the Bloomfield Cyclers to date is as follows: C. W. Smith, 5.005; L. A. Brady, 4.500; H. A. Beach, 3.532; J. M. Hague, 3.533; G. L. Stout, Jr., 2.504; H. C. The Pennsylvania division of the L. A. W. has elected the following delegates to the National Assembly; Thomas Hare, C. A. Dimon, R. D. Garden, and P. S. Collins, Philadelphia; A. T. A BOY DOESN'T CARE.

Clothes are just clothes to him as long as his father or mother buys them for him A wide awake boy will be hard on the best of garments, but so far as good goods and strong seams can withstand his robust efforts we have headed him off. We make his clothes as stylish as they are durable, and as warm as they are stylish.

No Christmas gift is more highly prized by a boy than a new Suit, Reefer, Cap, Leggins or Gloves. Mothers say our prices are the lowest in Brooklyn.
